

It's free, it's in Slawit but hey, you know what, it's not really a university!

“What’s the problem with our railways?”

Rail users are always moaning about ticket prices and underfunding, but they’re still being subsidised by taxpayers who don’t travel by train. Is rail travel a lifestyle choice or is the service in the national interest?

Tim Padmore, of Kirklees Campaign against Climate Change will set the scene for this month’s topic
